

AWARD CUPS TO VICTORIOUS VET PLAYERS

The members of the Newmarket Veterans' softball team were guests of honor Thursday night at a celebration of their victories sponsored by the Newmarket Veterans' Sports Association. The affair took place at the officers' mess of the former military camp. T. A. M. "Ab" Hulse was master of ceremonies.

"More important than the fact that this team won the North York Softball championship was the comradeship and spirit that was displayed both on and off the field," Mr. Hulse said. "They were the best behaved and most sportsmanlike team in the league. In addition, every one of them was a champion when our country needed champions in the very worst way."

He introduced Bob Birrell, son of Tom Birrell, who donated the replicas to Jack McDonald, Doug May, Mickey Smith, Bill VanZandt, Fred Evans, Stan Evans, Irwin Stepanik, Norm Legge, Harvey Gibney, Fred Dillman, Art Dobkins, Vern Mosier, Myles MacInnes, Jimmy Hodges, Johnny Eustace and Michael McNulty. The trophy itself was presented to Harvey Gibney. A replica was also presented to Mrs. Mair, mother of Hugh Mair, who is now playing professional hockey for Tulsa Oilers.

J. L. Spillète presented the Spillète Trophy to Bert Ward, manager of the team. He extended Joseph Vale's regrets that he was not able to be present because of "pressing duties elsewhere". Mr. Spillète also commended the team for its sportsmanship.

Miniatures of the cup, the gift of the town, were presented to the boys by Mayor Dr. L. W. Dales.

"You men have already given a great deal for this country," Dr. Dales said, "but you still have an important part to play. This should be strongly emphasized and kept before your minds. This country and the world is still full of 'isms'; there are a lot of false doctrines and rumors being spread, there are conspiracies of silence behind closed doors. You must protect, cherish and defend a democratic Canada," Dr. Dales said.

Guest speaker of the evening was J. E. Smith, M.P. Mr. Smith said: "The reputation for good sportsmanship that this team has is the kind of reputation that is all important in sport, in national affairs and in international affairs." He urged them to keep their organization intact, "because it is this kind of an organization that can be very helpful to its members."

"We look to the veterans to help build a better world," he said. "We are facing serious problems that must be met with patriotism, devotion and sacrifice. We look to the veterans to be a steady influence."

On behalf of Davis Leather Co., Arthur D. Evans then presented the team with the indoor soccer trophy and Bert Ward presented them with windbreakers. On behalf of the team, Doug May presented an engraved plaque to Coach Jack "Ceegars" McDonald in appreciation of his work throughout the season.

Refreshments and dancing followed. Chuck VanZandt and his City Slickers supplied the music.

M.O.H. Recommends Brighter Lighting For P.S. Washrooms

Dr. J. H. Wesley, medical officer of health, presented his annual report following his inspection of Newmarket public schools to the board Friday night. His report criticized the architectural arrangements of the school washrooms and urged better lighting facilities, but otherwise found the washrooms clean.

At a recent board of health meeting, complaints regarding the cleanliness of the school washrooms were aired. The text of the summary of Dr. Wesley's report on this page.

H. A. Jackson, supervising principal, reported that an open house had been held in the three public schools on Friday, and that he considered it to have been an extremely successful day. He said that he was very pleased with the amount of interest shown and that "the staffs of the schools really appreciated it."

Mr. Jackson reported that several meetings had been held to discuss the form that the new report cards should take. He said that a difference of opinion existed as to whether marks or grades should be shown on the cards, and also as to whether a comparison should be made between the pupil's mark and the marks of others.

"As a result of these differences of opinion, it was left to Miss Denne, Mr. Jefferson and myself to make the final decision on what should be recommended to the board. We are of the opinion that the student's actual mark, along with the class average, should be shown. Ninety-eight percent of parents are in favor of including the class high as well, but psychologists and educationists disagree. Personality complexes of the children themselves are involved, and we are of the opinion that it should Lavatory basins with soap, water and sanitary towels are provided where the youngsters may keep their hands clean. Discarding receptacles are also provided but they are not always used.

The toilets as a whole, with the exception of a few that need minor repairs, are all kept fairly clean, are free from foul odors and are in good working condition.

The most serious defect with these toilets is in the lighting of them. The outside windows can not be changed, neither can the toilets be better placed, so the only remedy is to make them lighter by adding artificial lighting over each dark toilet, taking off the door and laying them over with granolithic material, or painting.

The floors of the recreation rooms should be made of granolithic material. They are quite a source of danger to the pupils as they are at present.

The furnaces are being properly operated and there is no odor of escaping gas.

And just in conclusion, a word in reference to the work of the health nurse. After looking over the two years' work of the public health nurse, we feel that we have received a new perception of the needs of the school and pre-school children of the town. Every monthly report of the nurse should be published in The Era and Express and every line of her report is worthy of careful consideration by all parents and those interested in educational matters.

It was said by someone when the town had a new influx of doctors that they would do the work of the health nurse and that her services could be dispensed with. On the contrary, the every day work of the public health nurse is entirely different from that of the busy practitioner, and it is even more important for she is building the future pillars of our country, from which our democracy is constructed.

The Newmarket high school board Tuesday night unanimously passed a motion of congratulation to Miss Esther McGee, staff advisor in last week's high school edition of The Newmarket Era and Express, and the students. Members of the board were loud in their praise of the student's work.

The board also re-affirmed its desire to co-operate with the Newmarket Community Recreation Council in the use of the school after hours. A delegation from the recreation council was told that the main problem facing the board was provision of janitor services during the period the school was open to public use.

"We are working on this now and hope to be able to provide janitor service at night so that the school can be used," said W. J. Geer, chairman of the board. A tentative arrangement whereby the recreation council might act as the "booking agent" for public use of the school was discussed.

Saturday, Nov. 23—At 2 p.m. the Home and School Association is holding its annual used clothing and white elephant sale in the Scout Hall.

CHILDREN PROTECTED FROM DISEASE

Students of Newmarket grade schools line up before the health office to receive protective toxoiding against whooping cough and diphtheria. Children of Newmarket have the advantage of free clinics to provide this protection. In the lower picture, Dr. J. H. Wesley, medical officer of health, prepares to toxoid Henry Walter Vandenberg. A total of 329 children have been treated. A clinic to provide the reinforcing dose for preschool children will be held November 18. Photo by Budd.

VETERANS PAY RESPECTS TO LOST FRIENDS

Eighty veterans of three wars paraded to the cenotaph at St. Paul's Anglican church Sunday for services of remembrance. Led by the Newmarket Citizens' Band and the colors, the "old sweats" and the "new sweats" marched sharply down Main St. to the cenotaph.

The service was under the joint auspices of the Newmarket branch of the Canadian Legion and the Newmarket Veterans' Association.

Wreaths were laid at the cenotaph on behalf of the Province of Ontario, Town of Newmarket, the Canadian Legion and the Newmarket Veterans' Association.

Following the roll-call and the sounding of the Last Post, two minutes of silence were observed. Then Reveille was sounded. Arthur D. Evans read the roll and Frank Burling was the bugler.

The service at St. Paul's was solemn and impressive. Rev. Gower A. Stone conducted the service with Hon. Capt. J. C. Cardy, M.C., preaching the sermon. Rev. Henry Cotton and Rev. J. A. Smith read the lessons.

Mrs. Donald Brown was the sole representative of the lady veterans.

LLOYD BALSDON WINS $10 GUERNSEY AWARD

Lloyd Balsdon, son of Allan Balsdon of Queensville, and a member of the Sharon Boys' Calf Club, has been awarded a special prize of a rose bowl and $10 in cash by the Canadian Guernsey Cattle Association.

He had the highest score on his all-round work for the club year, of all the calf club members in Ontario under 16 years of age competing with Guernsey calves.

According to W. M. Cockburn, agricultural representative for York, who was notified of the award last week, Lloyd had a wide margin over all other competitors.

The special prize will be awarded at the Guernsey breeders' banquet at the Royal Winter Fair.

Lloyd and the other members of the club were given instruction and supervision by the assistant agricultural representative, A. Oliver Dalrymple.

The following is a list of the names of those who served in the First World War and the Second World War which did not appear on the honor roll published last week.

STUDENTS PUBLISH EXCELLENT PAPER

The ability of the Newmarket high school students who published The Era and Express was quite evident in their work. Everywhere, there were words of praise for their effort. The staff of The Era and Express, who in the past has looked forward to student issues in fear and trembling lest one of the budding Horace Greeley fall into the press, found the day went smoothly—a tribute to the students, their principals and teachers.

An incident which illustrates the attitude with which the students approached the job of editing the paper occurred in the office Tuesday night. Wednesday noon was the deadline for editorials and the student editor and staff had found they only had enough copy for part of the editorial space. Thereupon, an editorial conference was called, which in our opinion, resembled more a meeting of the editors of the New York Times than of a student paper for its seriousness and down-to-earth attitude.

Dozens of suggestions were made, thoroughly discussed, and discarded because they weren't suitable. One suggestion was merely destructive criticism. It was thrown out. Facts and figures were not handy to bear out the argument of a second editorial. It, too, was discarded. The editorials that finally appeared were chosen after a careful weighing of pros and cons. As a result, they were written with conviction.

While the actual editing of the paper of necessity was done by two or three students, the editor-in-chief, Miss Eileen Jackson, and her assistants, many students participated in other phases of editorial work as is seen by the variety of by-lines. Student volunteers appeared at the office to assist in proofreading; and on Thursday afternoon, nearly a score of students helped in the folding and mailing of the issue. There was a time Thursday when most of the regular staff of the paper were simply shoved out of the way while the students took over.

The November 7 issue of The Era and Express marks the first time the high school students have published the paper since before the war. Conditions have changed considerably since then but we doubt if there is anyone who can call last week's paper anything but a success. We all look forward to another issue by the students next week.

IMPROVING APPROACHES TO NEWMARKET

The Newmarket town council is at present sponsoring a contest for the best design for a sign to be placed at the corner of Eagle and Yonge Sts. This sign will point the direction to Newmarket and will advertise its advantages as an industrial and residential centre. The idea is a good one but if the council is determined to direct attention to Newmarket, we suggest that it might also consider improving its approaches as well.

Deputy-Reeve J. L. Spillette has long harbored the thought that a cut-off from Yonge St. at the Mulock side-road and entering the town at the foot of Main St. would be ideal for directing traffic and, incidentally, more business towards Newmarket. Mayor Dr. L. W. Dales has suggested Eagle St. be lighted and trees planted from Yonge St. in.

Mr. Spillette's suggestion has in it the ingredients but in the second half the locals scored two goals.

John Lister put in the first goal for Newmarket and Lowell Hewitt the second. The visiting team tried desperately to even the score but was unsuccessful, the game ending 2-1 in favor of Newmarket.

Miss Lydia Pearson, daughter of ex-mayor P. W. Pearson, hung out her shingle at Preston on Monday as a barrister. She is the first lady lawyer in practice on her own account in Ontario. Her many friends in Newmarket wish her every success.

It seems that people enjoy getting together for a sing-song around the piano, the camp fire, or the banquet table, and all goes well as long as the following conditions obtain—everybody wants to sing, everybody knows the songs and nobody is particular about the way it sounds. But let any person introduce a new song or try to get an old song performed in a new way, and the situation may soon deteriorate musically or disintegrate socially.

In choirs and choral societies, however, the situation is generally reversed. Most of the singers are there to improve themselves and the choir as a whole by developing their personal efficiency, and by increasing their repertoire of choral works.

They know that their own voices must blend with the rest of their section, that all parts must balance the others in volume, and that all notes must be in tune—on the right pitch.

And what can be said to the choristers can also be said to the conductor, and a lot more. He must study the music from three angles—the composer, the choristers, and the audience. He must convince his singers that he knows what he wants, and that he knows how to get it. He must show good taste in selecting ents of a long-term project, one that would have to be undertaken by the province, but there is nothing to prevent immediate application of Dr. Dales' suggestion.

Nothing has been said lately, apart from the usual summer complaint of dust—a well warranted complaint—about Davis Dr., yet as the Barrie highway nears completion, Davis Dr. will have increasing prominence as an entrance to Newmarket. Little has been said, either, about the eastern entries into Newmarket which offer many opportunities for improvement. For one thing, the bridge over the river on Davis Dr. is a disgrace because of its lack of proper safety precautions.

The white paint has faded on its approach end of the warning reflectors, only a bit of rusty metal is left. The bridge has been in that condition for over a year. It is not the Newmarket authorities who are responsible for that condition, but they can certainly take the lead in urging the proper authorities into action.

Returning to Eagle St., a project which should be included in the improvement of Newmarket approaches is that of the repair and renovation of the Anglican cemetery at the top of the hill just outside the town limits. The project has interested church officials but there is no reason why the town of Newmarket cannot undertake at least the first steps. The cemetery is a landmark of historical importance not only to Newmarket but to York. It could easily become important as a historical shrine with its inevitable by-product of increased business were it to be properly restored.

A PROFIT FROM MISCHIEF

No matter what steps are taken to reduce Hallowe'en mischief, windows on Main St. are still being given thorough soaping. Soap doesn't leave a permanent disfigurement, although there was still evidence of Hallowe'en soaping on the weekend. What is objectionable is the very poor taste of the soap-users.

A bar of soap and a pane of glass can be combined as a medium of expression almost as much as oil and canvas. However, there is no need to comment on the work of the local soap user. They just make a mess and accomplish nothing unless it is to get someone up earlier than usual to erase the more offensive remarks.

A town in the United States was much troubled with soaped windows every Hallowe'en until a citizen with an imagination born of desperation suggested that a prize be offered for the best soap-painting drawn on a merchant's window. The idea caught on so well that the morning after Hallowe'en presented a vista on the main street of soap pictures ranging from a battle scene to a painstaking portrait of the mayor.

Such a scheme might be tried here. Apart from turning a nuisance into a valuable activity, the merchants reported that their decorated windows attracted considerable interest from the public. We pass on the idea to the merchants of Newmarket. Next year, we venture, they will still have to remove soap from their windows as they have this year. Why not make something out of it?

What Others Think

POTATO PRICE SUPPORT

(The Barrie Examiner)

There has been considerable concern in Simcoe county regarding the effect of the surplus crop of potatoes in the Maritimes this year. Growers from the five eastern provinces met with department of agriculture officials in Ottawa last month and obtained support from the agricultural prices support board. On account of the representations made, the government decided to help in two ways. First, potatoes in the Maritimes will be bought for processing into starch. The price at the factories will be from 90 cents to $1.00 a 100 pounds. Second, the board will agree to buy No. 1 table potatoes in the Maritimes next spring at $1.00 for 75 pounds. These agreements have been planned to relieve the market of substantial quantities of the present surplus. In Simcoe county this should have the effect of halting the downward trend of prices and thus provide more money for potato growers in this county.

OUR TOWN BAND

By GOLDEN GLOW

I have just come home, and by rights, I should be off to bed instead of sitting down to write a Golden Glow article—but I feel like telling you all how proud we are of our town band. You see, it was the first of a series of Sunday evening band concerts in our good old town hall this evening.

I wonder, may I say a good word for our town hall before I start on my article. It is old. I know, for I have lived all my life in Newmarket (and I love every inch of it!) and I used to be in kindergarten concerts before I ever went to school, too young to be stage-struck; no doubt, and the town hall was quite an institution in my young days even then.

I don't know exactly the year it was built, but tonight, as I sat looking at the attractive appearance of our band boys and listening to their splendid program, my thoughts kept going back, and still farther, back to the many, many good concerts I've attended in that same old hall, and tonight it was as good as ever; the acoustics there are just about perfect.

Oh by the way, if you don't know what acoustics are don't bother to look it up. I did, so as to be sure I spell it correctly. It just means the science of sound. The town hall was properly built and the sound does not go ringing round and round, spoiling the harmony, but comes down perfectly. The only one thing I ever found was a bit disconcerting was when a person, speaking from the platform, stood back too far and his voice was lost behind the arch where the curtain falls. If one stands well out beyond the arch, he is heard perfectly.

The band boys made a bright spot on the stage with their clear-cut tunes and their shining instruments, and under the able leadership of Robert Moore, their conductor, they gave a most delightful program and Miss Gwen Lambert, with Mrs. C. E. Bloddale accompanying, sang several selections in her usual easy rendering, delighting the audience. She was very generous, and readily sang a couple of encores, one of which captivated her audience especially. The Last Rose of Summer, and then all her selections were beautifully sung, no matter how difficult, with perfect ease. Mrs. Bloddale was wonderful as an accompanist.

Such a scheme might be tried here. Apart from turning a nuisance into a valuable activity, the merchants reported that their decorated windows attracted considerable interest from the public. We pass on the idea to the merchants of Newmarket. Next year, we venture, they will still have to remove soap from their windows as they have this year. Why not make something out of it?

The band opened the program with Eternal Father Strong To Save, and later played Fierce Raged The Tempest. In fact one might almost say it was quite nautical for one was Life on the Ocean Wave, while another was selections from H.M.S. Pinafore.

As we listen to the different items on the program we do not realize all the time and sacrifice the members of the band have to make attending the band practice twice a week. For a band is really like a choir; it must have practice with the members all present to give a good account of itself. And every number on the program tonight was a gem, even Colonel Bogie—and when the conductor announced one in honor of the sponsor, J. O. Little, the audience showed their appreciation in no uncertain manner, for Mr. Little has fathered the band for a good many years, and we owe him a real debt of gratitude that now, once again after the long years of the war, when our young bandmen served overseas and elsewhere, we have a town band second to none.

I wonder will anyone think to print a copy of tonight's program, for I can't seem to recall each item. One was old songs, and the audience was invited to join in the chorus—which we did. Bring Back My Bonnie To Me was one. The Southern Air was especially good. They were all splendid. I wonder might I offer a suggestion—I feel that most of us would prefer an earlier start. It was a long wait from the end of church services to 8:30. Forgive me if I speak out of turn, I am only trying to be helpful.

Now I'll go to bed—but I feel better satisfied having written my thoughts and feelings about the splendid program our town band prepared for us this evening. It was certainly a most unpleasant night as regards the weather—so no doubt many were not able to attend. We'll hope for better weather next time. They laugh at me for being such an advocate for Newmarket—well, by now, anybody who takes time to read Golden Glow column must know Newmarket is to me the best little town on earth—and now we have the best town band a town of our size ever had.

So then—laugh if you like! I know I'm right!

ing the music, and good judgment in performing it. It is also his duty to understand his singers, their ability, their various personalities, and their temperaments. His one objective should always be to prepare his choir to make a worthy offering in the service of praise.

It can all be summed up in the words of the old French Christmas carol: "O the rising of the sun. The running of the deer. The playing of the merry organ. Sweet singing in the choir."

TO THE EDITOR

By GOLDEN GLOW

The Editor: Through you I would like to address members of local C.I.O. of the Davis Leather Co. Ltd. I received your pamphlet as did many other Newmarket citizens. We are all interested in the continued success of the Davis company, and fair treatment for the employees.

Unless one has had considerable experience with business and finance, the facts in your pamphlet could be very misleading. Not being an employee and not having any shares in the company, I have no personal interest except as a citizen. I was in Toronto recently attending a directors' meeting of the Commercial Finance Corporation. My attention was called to the lumber and woodenware industries of British Columbia. Industries, taking the business right away from them. The following report taken from Babson's financial paper of Nov. 1, will show you why: average hours worked, N.S., 44.5; N.B., 45.6; Que., 45.3; Ont., 42.6; Man., 43.5; Sask., 42.6; Alta., 42.7; B.C., 41.4; average hourly wage in cents (in the same order), 69.8; 63.0; 63.2; 70.6; 69.0; 68.4; 77.2; 61.9.

You will see that B.C. has the shortest working hours and the highest wages, therefore the highest cost of production in the dominion.

Rev. N. Rowen, pastor of the Union church, is continuing the meetings with sound films on Friday evenings at 8 o'clock at the church. There will be series of films on Life of St. Paul. These meetings are well attended. Everyone is invited.

Leslie Harper and Guy Soules are working on a community skating rink project on the Harper farm.

Stalin Doesn't Want War, Lions Chief Tells Student

By MARILYN SPEAR

Russia is not as unfriendly as rumor has it and Stalin has no desire for war. The Russian people are far more interested in getting back on their feet economically than engaging in a conflict against nations with superior equipment such as United States and Great Britain. Clifford D. Pierce, president of the Lions International, is emphatic on this point. He compared the Russians to farmers who hold back and argue for the best prices.

Mr. Pierce was interviewed during his recent visit to Newmarket high school.

"What exactly was the aim of the Paris peace conference?" "To negotiate with all people freely for the development of peace and laws agreeable to all," was the answer. There were some 21 nations represented at the Paris peace conference, each striving for its own ideals and settlements. What is to be done with Trieste? Who will control the Danube River or will Britain and America have their way and have it for international use? Mr. Pierce voiced the opinion that the American and Canadian aim is chiefly to help the warring countries back to prosperity and health and to insure peace, freedom and security in our own lands for years to come.

Germany will be given a fair deal and put back into circulation, but never again will it be given the opportunity to arouse the people or start any kind of trouble. This security for other nations of the world will be achieved and maintained at any expense.

In his soft, southern "drawl", Mr. Pierce described conditions in London and Paris. Londoners are badly in need of food and clothing. They are skimping on clothes to boost the industrial needs of their country and their diets are extremely poor. In Paris, the food was exceptionally good but prices have soared.

Breakfast for two, although of the best, cost $8. Paris is a beautiful city, while London is black and in shambles from the effects of the war. There was a good crop in England but a high percentage of it was lost during bad weather in harvest time.

The strong, courageous character of the British in the face of these handicaps and disappointments is something for the world to marvel at.

Mr. Pierce lives on a farm in Memphis, Tenn. His farm contains 300 acres, which is small for that part of the country. Here he raises cotton along with the usual livestock of our district. This year he gathered 90 bales of cotton, 500 pounds to a bale. At home, Mr. Pierce is just "one of the boys" and is naturally anxious to be back.

After extensive travel in France, England, Mexico, Cuba and South America, the president of the Lions International could easily say he has seen "life" in this world. He was 19 tense hours in the air enroute to England where he passed one week and then on to Paris for a stay of two weeks.

In comparing Canada and the U.S.A., he stated that there is very little difference in the two countries, although our temperature hits a little lower level. The stores and people look the same but "our accent" is a bit different. A southern accent has a softer appeal and Mr. Pierce was not quite able to manage "about", in our accustomed tone. However, if he didn't live in the United States and was dropped from a balloon into another country, he would choose Canada for his home, he said.

IGNORANCE OF LAW DECLARED NO EXCUSE

Why be ignorant of the law? Ignorance means disaster. In magistrate's court on Friday, Nov. 1, a case involving this fault was heard. A Toronto gentleman pleaded guilty to ignorance of the law. He did not know the speed limit at one particular point. This is but one small incident pertaining to an over-used excuse. Cyclists and pedestrians who do not take heed of traffic signals are as much at fault as the motorist who is guilty of the same offence. Many of these people plead ignorance. But ignorance will not save lives and so offenders must be punished. If laws are to be enforced, they must be known and understood by all.

S.A.C. FIRSTS DOWN NEWMARKET HIGH 11-8

The N.H.S. senior rugby team lost to St. Andrew's College on Thursday, Oct. 30, at St. Andrew's by a score of 11-8.

Newmarket drew first blood on two kicks by Don Brown. The Saints came back in the second quarter for their 11 points.

After half time the Newmarket lads put on a drive resulting in a touchdown by Elphinstone and a convert by Brown. The high school boys fought hard to the finish, but were unable to break the heavy line of the Saints. Taylor played well for the Saints, and Brown, Elphinstone and McNern starred for Newmarket.

AUTUMN BEAUTY

By Eileen Jackson
The burnished gold of maple leaves against the deep, clear blue of the cloudless sky; the crisp crackle of leaves underfoot; hazy mornings, wrapped in a thin gossamer of mist; thin, frosty air, that puts a sparkle in one's eyes, and a song in one's heart; this is autumn.

Autumn is the most beautiful season of the year. Brilliant colors are flaunted everywhere. The deep red of the sumach tries to outdo the glorious orange color of nearby maple trees. The bright yellow of the elms provides a colorful contrast to the dark shiny green of the spruce and pine. The sun smiles down from a clear blue sky on the harvest fields, checkerboarded in all shades of yellow, brown, green and purple, giving them a golden radiance. Occasionally, a flock of wild ducks or geese, silhouetted against the cloudless sky, gives even more color to the scene. The quiet purple twilight of autumn, hazy with the smoke of many bonfires, is unequalled by that of any other season.

Autumn is a season of abundance. The country fields are clothed in golden mantles of wheat; orchards are rosy with their abundance of fruit; gardens almost overflow with their yield of vegetables.

With this abundance, there is also busy preparation. Throughout the long autumn days, crops are being harvested, the barns and granaries overflow with the wealth of the harvested crops. Even the animals are busy; a flash of russet brown among the trees proclaims a squirrel, busy gathering his winter food supply. The whole autumn landscape is one of bustling preparation.

Autumn is nature's most glorious achievement. All through the year, nature is striving for her ultimate creation, autumn. Starting afresh with the bare landscape ravaged by winter, she is continually working, painting the first faint green of spring and the brighter colors of summer, until she finally achieves the brilliant pageantry that is autumn. Autumn is the most magnificent result of nature's handiwork.

CHARLES MOFFAT, MANAGER

"I'd like 11,506,651*
others to hear this"

"No post mortem!" warned Ida, glancing at Ruth. "The game's over. Besides, your husband looks as though he has something on his mind."

"I sure have," said Bill. "Only I'd like the other 11,506,651 Canadians to hear this too. To-day I got hold of some figures that made me proud of the business I'm in. We Canadians now own more than 10 billion dollars worth of life insurance. And payments? During 1945 alone, the companies paid out about 66½ million dollars to widows, children and other beneficiaries. And another 95 million dollars was paid to living policyholders through matured endowments, dividends, disability claims, annuities and cash surrender values. That's what life insurance is doing for us Canadians."

"These life insurance benefits helped to pay off mortgages on homes, start youngsters off to college, settle older people into comfortable retirement. Countless families have thanked their stars for life insurance in time of need. Many, many others who are now building future security through their policies will be glad of it. But I want every living Canadian to realize the importance of Life Insurance."

Every life insurance dollar, while waiting to be paid out to its claimant, is working and growing in the service of the public, creating more jobs and more goods for more Canadians. Of that dollar about 57 cents is now invested in Government bonds, 5 cents is laboring for municipalities, 20 cents is building industries and public utilities from coast to coast, 8 cents is in farm and urban mortgages, another 5 cents is on loan to policy holders, 1½ cents is represented by real estate and 3½ cents is in cash and miscellaneous assets.

Life insurance not only grows in the scope of its protection, year after year, but is continually being employed for socially desirable purposes.

REMOVAL OF ELM URGED FOR SAFETY

By RUTH KELLY

One hundred and thirty-two years ago Wm. Roe, who was postmaster of this district, set up his trading post here. His small business thrived and grew into an industrial town widely known as Newmarket. Mr. Roe's trading post was situated on Timothy St. and was marked then by the great elm tree which is still standing.

Most of the old historical sites in Newmarket have disappeared or are disappearing fast. Prominent citizens of the town and students of the high school have been questioned as to what is to become of the old tree.

Mayor Dr. L. W. Dales claims the tree is a menace to drivers and is so old it should be removed.

Frank Bowser says the elm is rotten right through and only the shell remains standing. Both gentlemen agree that if the tree is removed for safety precautions, that place should be marked as the founding place of Newmarket. Dr. Dales thought it would be possible for the stump to be left and a bronze plaque put up to mark the site.

Laurie Cain, postmaster, when questioned on the subject said if the tree had to be removed he would like to see a cairn erected to commemorate the spot where our first market started.

Teachers and students of the high school thought that if the tree were a menace to the safety of the citizens, no amount of historical sentiment should keep it standing. They unanimously agreed that something should be erected in remembrance of the first Newmarket and thought Dr. Dales' idea was a good means of keeping this historical site fresh in the minds of the people of Newmarket.

Former citizens, when speaking of Newmarket, remember it as one of the most outstanding objects in the town. To John Irwin of the Clarke Irwin Publishing Co. the elm tree is Newmarket.

CAFETERIA SMELLS SHARPEN APPETITES

After a long, drawn-out session of morning classes, the school becomes suddenly alive with the jangling of the noon bell. Out come the students in a mad scramble as they push their way to the N.H.S. cafeteria. On days when hamburgers are served, this rush increases until it almost becomes dangerous to go within a ten-yard radius of the surging crowd.

The cafeteria is one of the stable organizations of the school, without which the students would be lost—and hungry. Here they find an adequate supply of white and chocolate milk, soft drinks, and the odd box of chocolate bars. Since the price of chocolate milk has increased, there has been a greater demand for white. And what would lunch at school be during the blustery winter months, without the savory, appetizing hamburgers and hot dogs supplied twice weekly by our cafeteria. The aroma of steaming soup or pork and beans so tantalizes the students during the last morning period that there is very little wonder at the mad dash down the stairs to lunch.

Who runs this organization? The cafeteria committee, of course. This committee consists of three boys and three girls, headed by Marion Smith. She is ably assisted by Marg Proctor, Phyllis Winch, Gord McNear, Red McNern (some family), and Doug Ross. And who prepares those scrumptious hamburgers? Here Mrs. Atkinson steps in. She sees that they are toasting in the oven, ready for sale, before the noon bell rings. The boys and girls of the committee rush around trying to satisfy the demands of the students as each clamors for his "two hamburgers and a coke" or bottle of milk.

Last year, although student prices were kept as low as possible, a small profit was made. These funds are being saved for the purchase of a refrigerator. The committee also hopes to provide cupboards and other necessities with which hot lunches could be provided daily for the students who tire of the everlasting sandwich.

If an army marches on its stomach, N.H.S. students study on theirs. Maybe their good (?) marks are the results of the efforts of the cafeteria committee. If so, words can never adequately repay what the students owe to the cafeteria.

Believe New Barrie Road Ready By '48

It is estimated that the new Weston to Barrie highway will be paved in 1948. Most of the cutting is completed now and the grading should be done by the end of next summer. The road is modelled on the Queen Elizabeth way and will have four lanes, each 22' in width.

One of the greatest difficulties encountered was the crossing of the marsh south of Lake Simcoe. The engineers had to clear away to the sub-soil, an average of six to eight feet. In some places, however, it meant going down 30' and 40'.

The question of how this highway will affect Newmarket is being widely discussed. The main purpose in its construction is to relieve the traffic situation on highway No. 11 by providing a direct route to the north. American visitors coming through on the Queen Elizabeth will naturally use it. People in the north and east sections of Toronto will likely still use the Yonge St. route.

For those using the new road, there will be access to the town line by a clover leaf. In this way, some of the Lake Simcoe traffic will only skirt Newmarket. There is some conjecture about the town line; its improvement will be a county project.

For those interested in seeing this great engineering feat, the construction of the most up-to-date highway in Canada, the best views are from our town line, west of Aurora on Wellington St. and the Bradford to Bond Head road.

MOUNT ALBERT PROTECTION OF COSTUME PROBLEM FOR JUDGES

The Mount Albert Women's Institute sponsored a Hallowe'en party in the community hall, Mount Albert, that was attended by a large crowd.

Roy Stevart was master of ceremonies, and Mrs. W. Cooper supplied the music for the costume parade. The judges, Mrs. Reg. Vilbe, Mrs. Edgar and Mr. Murray Roberts found their task of awarding prizes difficult. Much credit goes to Mrs. W. R. Steeper, who was able to obtain nine dozen chocolate bars and several dozen packages of peanuts, which were distributed to all children in costume and all other tiny tots.

Two tiny tots, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Harrison, were Wilfred, three years, and Robert, fourteen months. They paraded in costume and created a great deal of interest.

Mrs. Donald Silver, Mount Albert, delighted the audience with her imitation in song of a spinner with her trousser all packed in her little bottom drawer, only lacking the man, Jimmy and Bernard Couples, Holt, sang a duet. A skit, Sounds of Hallowe'en, was given by Scott school. Four girls from Union school sang. Doreen Lunau and Florence Harrison performed a duet, and Mount Albert public school gave as their part of the program a skit entitled Jack o'Lantern at Home.

The following prizes were awarded. Girls under 4 years, Kathleen Morehead and Beth Stokes. Boys under 4 years, Ted Smith and Bruce Shillinglaw. Girls 4 to 7 years, Betty Rolling and Merle MacPherson. Boys 4 to 7 years, Gary Hammatt and Clifford Lunau. Girls 8 to 10 years, Iris Morehead and Marjorie Leek. Boys 8 to 10 years, Jimmy Shillinglaw and Donnie Green. Girls 11 to 14 years, Gladys Jardine and Ruth Simpson. Boys 11 to 14, Charles Morehead and Nelson Case. Ladies' special prize, Mrs. H. Shillinglaw and Audrey Couch. Men's special prize, Charles Morehead and Clifford Lunan. Ladies' doubles, Mrs. A. Leek and Mrs. E. Davis. Men's doubles, Charles Morehead and Howard Mooney.

CAN WE PLEAD 'NOT GUILTY'?

Too many people take refuge behind the thought, "It can't happen here". Recently in the magistrate's court, two storekeepers of the district were charged with violating W.P.T.B. regulations.

It is the duty of the W.P.T.B. to check on the buying and selling prices of goods. This is for the protection of both the customers and the storekeepers of Newmarket. Overcharging and omitting the price tags on articles are the two most common offences, and of these two, omitting the price tag is the more serious!

It is true the customer is often equally guilty and that scarce commodities seem as attractive as the proverbial green fields. Our government has set up regulations and appointed officials to see that they are carried out. It is our duty to insist on the price tag and the fair price.

It is not smart to obtain a product via the black market. Both the customer and the storekeeper are defeating their own ends by stooping to illegal means. Let us help to maintain price-control and combat inflation.

Not only the two storekeepers, but all Canadian citizens, are on trial. Let the verdict be, "Not Guilty". — By Irene Hill.

DOWN THE CENTRE

By AB. HULSE

A four-day final to a successful season in softball and box-soccer was the big party staged by Beat Vard and his associates in honor of the Newmarket Vets teams last Thursday night. Arrangements were well planned and there wasn't a hitch the whole evening. It was one of the best affairs of its kind it has ever been our pleasure to attend. Honored guests included Jack E. Smith, M.P., and members of Newmarket town council.

Cecilia McDonald called it a prelude to next spring's big celebration "when we bring home the O.H.A. Intermediate B title." That would be a bit of a surprise on the present dope, but these vets have come up with quite a few surprises in the past and they're leaving no stone unturned to produce a winning team. On the subject of surprises, players and management received two sets of miniature trophies and a windbreaker, and to top it all off the players called for the coach and presented him with a handsome plaque bearing all their names. Jack was deeply touched by the presentation.

Chuck VanZant and his foursome were present to beat out the boogie and right now the lads are producing toe-tapping rhythms, and should go a long way.

No limitations will be placed on playing status. That is the latest decision of the Ward-May-McDonald board of strategy. In other words while the team will be called Newmarket Vets, players who weren't on active service will be used as occasion requires to strengthen the weak spots. "It will come to that in a few years and we might just as well start it now," said Coach May. Larry Molineaux is assisting Doug in mentoring the squad as occasion comes and Larry figures that with the superior condition the boys will have when the league opens, the team spirit being developed, and the actual playing material available, the vets will go a long way towards copping an O.H.A. mug. Games are being arranged with Barrie, Penetanguishene and Midland and Camp Borden.

Bob Peters, 'tis rumored, may head the call for additional goal strength and come out of retirement to don the pads. At the present moment, he intends to help coach the four net candidates until he finds a place to live if he plays. The vets haven't given up hopes of getting Ernie Hughes to sign. Hughes is alternating with Ginger Hall, ex-Sutton Greenshirts' netminder, for Mahers in the T.H.L. major series, but Ernie would like to play for Newmarket. If other clubs will waive him through.

Joe Peat has been working out with both vets and merchants, and Peat will be welcomed with open arms by the vets, who have Whitey Bone, Harvey Gibney, Myles McInnis, and Peat for a formidable blue-line quartet. George Stark, ex-Aurora-junior, is definitely with the team and he will strengthen the forward line. Alf Cotey, ex-Waterloo Skins' star and now resident in Aurora, is another player the vets are after. Right now, Bill Johnston, promising young forward of last season, looks redhot and should be headed for a big year. Newmarket right now is faced with the possibility of having two O.H.A. intermediate entries, but it must surely be apparent the town can't support two teams, let alone supply the playing material. The picture is expected to clear up definitely this week.

Three Expect To
Quit Town Council
At End Of '46 Term

At least three vacancies are expected to come before the electors of Aurora, when nomination day rolls around on Monday, Nov. 25. On Monday night, Councillors Elwood Davis and William West announced definitely that they would not be candidates for re-election, and Reeve C. E. Sparks assured council that "at the present time I have no intention of running again."

Mayor Ross Linton announced that he would again be a candidate. "There is a lot of work to be carried over into 1947 and I would like to see it completed," said his worship. "I will be a candidate for another year. This is one of the happiest years I have had in council."

"I have just about made up my mind that I have filled the vice-chairship long enough," said Reeve Sparks. "At the present time I have no intention of running again. A few people have asked me to stand again, but I would not let a lot more to make me change my mind."

Councillor A. N. Fisher announced he would be a candidate for council once more and expressed satisfaction at this year's council.

Deputy-Reeve Asa A. Cook said he would seek office another term as one of the county council representatives.

"I am not able to find the time from business to stand another year," Councillor Elwood Davis told council.

"I have gained a lot of experience this year, and changed a lot of my opinions," said Councillor Stewart Patrick. "I want to say the mayor has done a good job. I will likely be a candidate for another year."

"I am enjoying council work and satisfied to stay where I am, and I will run again," Councillor Dr. Crawford Rose said.

"I would like to remain another year, but it is unfair to the ratepayers in view of my business commitments," said Councillor William West who is retiring.

Councillor R. V. Smith was absent from the meeting, but it is thought likely he will seek his third term on council.

While no definite word has been forthcoming from the public school board, Trustees Howard Bunn, J. F. Willis and Dan Webster are expected to all be candidates once more.

Town clerk Clarke announced that town hall and the Salvation Army citadel would serve as polling booths for wards 3 and 2 respectively, replacing the Mechanics' hall and old town hall, now otherwise in use.

Difficulty in obtaining election officials was thought likely with the election not on a holiday, and wages being more attractive than the fees offered.

The entry fee is $6. The possibility still exists that both the Newmarket and Aurora mercantile leagues will affiliate with the O.I.A. and send their winner into the playdowns. So far there has been little news from the mercantiles. Jimmy Walker and George Haskett are expecting word from any interested teams, and the same situation applies to Herb Holman and yours truly at Aurora. Aurora would like to hear pronto from Bert Lockie at Zephyr, and Herb Sippson at Ballantrae as to their plans for the winter. How about it fellows?

A great athlete passed away last week in the person of Walter Reeves, chief constable of Bradford. "Gunch," as he was better known, to at least two generations, was one of the cleverest lacrosse players ever developed in celerytown. He not only played for Bradford but was a member of the famous Toronto Tecumsehs in professional, and a doughty home player who neither asked nor gave quarter in a grueling game. As late as the mid-20's he was actively participating, and he always lent a hand to the Bradford teams of later years.

"Gunch" was 64 when he died and as constable in a wet town he displayed a high sense of tact and fairness and solved many a problem by good-will and common sense. The kids of the village have lost a real friend. Bradford has produced many great lacrosse players, Dr. Lou Campbell, Bob McKinstry, Suds Sutherland, Fred Collings, to name but a few, and the late Walter Reeves will rank in memory with the greatest of district athletes.

We were wrong when we credited this year's Schoenbergs team as the first from these parts to win an O.R.S.A. championship. Thumbing through our files we note that the "Berg" won a B championship in 1939, and in 1940 when moved up to A rating, went through to the semi-finals. Several of this year's team including Ellison, Sutton and Graham, were playing then. We neglected to mention that Johnny Campbell is the popular and capable manager of this year's Newmarket Merchants' hockey squad when we gave the Merchants a spot of publicity. Johnny is too much of a good sport to mention it himself, but he's a real acquisition to the board of strategy.

KENILWORTH

The Kenilworth W.A. is holding a bazaar at the school on Friday evening, Nov. 15. There will be a sale of baking, aprons, other handmade articles, a fish pond for the children and a program, after which lunch will be served.

SHARON

The ladies of St. James' W.A. are holding their bazaar, silver tea and home cooking sale in the Sharon hall on Wednesday, Nov. 20, from 3 to 5 p.m.

QUEENSVILLE GIRL

WEDS IN TORONTO

The marriage of Nelda Elizabeth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Clark, Queensville, and William Lewis Jackson of Toronto, son of Mrs. L. Jackson and the late Mr. Jackson, took place in Gerrard St. United church parsonage, with Rev. Mr. Langdon officiating.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a street-length gown of misty blue crepe with grey hat, and carried Sweetheart roses. Miss Mae Grun of Bowmansville in fuschia crepe was bridesmaid, and Russell Jackson, brother of the groom, was best man.

A reception followed where the bride's mother received in an orchid dress with a corsage of pink roses. The groom's mother also wore orchid, with a yellow corsage. Leaving for Buffalo, the bride wore a gold suit with black accessories. The couple will reside in Toronto.

GLENVILLE

The Glenville W.A. is holding a bazaar at the school on Friday evening, Nov. 15. There will be a sale of baking, aprons, other handmade articles, a fish pond for the children and a program, after which lunch will be served.

MEET WAR BRIDES

W.A. MEETING NOV. 7

The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Association of Keswick United church was held in the Sunday-school auditorium Nov. 7.

Following a short business meeting a special program and social hour was arranged to welcome newcomers and war brides.

Introductions of a unique nature were carried out by the president, Mrs. William Davison, in a game of who's who.

A warm fellowship existed during the whole meeting.

SHARON

St. James' Anglican church, under the auspices of the Women's Auxiliary, is holding a bazaar in the township hall Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 20, from 3 to 5 p.m. There will be a variety of articles, suitable for Christmas gifts, for sale. Afternoon tea will also be served. A good crowd is hoped for as an enjoyable afternoon is anticipated.

Patronize your home town merchant. He usually has what you want.

HAVE BOXES AT FAIR

Box holders at the Royal Winter Fair from the Aurora district include Mrs. Amelia Jarvis, G. D. Y. Leacock, Mrs. Adele Mullock, Malcolm D. Richardson, S. C. Snively, D. S. Umphrey, P. L. Whytock.

SHARE IN GUARD

Six members of C Coy., Queen's York Rangers, were included in the guard of honor for Hon. Ray Atherton, American ambassador, who officially opened the Royal Winter Fair on Tuesday evening. Sgt. Mel Davies of C Coy. was in charge of the guard, and others were Sgt. Sherwood, Cpl. Walter Bunn and Joseph Clarke, and Ptes. Jack Monkman and Peter King.

IS PROGRESSING

CALLED TO FIRE

Aurora firemen were called to the Aurora Dairy to extinguish a blaze on Sunday afternoon which was caused by an overheated boiler. Little loss was sustained.

DISPOSAL OF TANNERY
AFFLUENT DISCUSSED

Town foreman James Goulding, with town engineer W. B. Redfern made trip last week to Ballister Spa, New York, near Albany, to inspect the method used there of disposing of effluent from the plant of the American Hide Co. and the way odors have been eliminated from the tannery there.

On Monday, Mr. Goulding outlined to council the details of his trip. Mr. Redfern, he said, would submit a report to council later, but in his opinion there was little in the system that could be adopted here since it was impossible to secure the acreage of land outside town needed in the process.

COMMENCEMENT NOV. 22

Aurora high school commencement will be held on Friday, Nov. 22. Tickets are now on sale and seats may be reserved.

TO HOLD EXHIBIT

"Our Town Art" group will hold an exhibit in Aurora high school on Nov. 29 and 30. The event is sponsored by the Aurora Board of Trade with proceeds going to the community memorial fund.

Says Milk Rise Not High
Compared To Other Foods

Aurora Home and School Association held a well attended meeting on Tuesday evening with E. H. Clarke, secretary of the Ontario Milk Foundation, as guest speaker.

Mr. Clarke said the dairy industry was the largest single undertaking in Canada and that as compared to other foods over the years the price of milk had not risen greatly. He illustrated his talk with lantern slides. He was introduced by Mrs. Hugh McRae.

Dr. C. J. Devins, chairman of the public school board, outlined the plans for the new school and urged all those in favor of a new school to work to that end on election. Lorraine Fierheller was guest soloist.

The picture contest for the best attendance of parents went to Delroy Babcock's room.

Next meeting will be a special "secondary school" meeting to be held at Aurora high school on Monday, Nov. 25, with Mrs. Kate Aiken, well known radio columnist and homemaker, as the guest speaker.

The December meeting will be Fathers' Night.

NO POLL TAX IN '47, COUNCILLORS RULE

There will be no poll tax in Aurora in 1947, Aurora town council instructed Clerk Harold Clarke on Monday night.

"Drop it and encourage young people to remain here," urged Councillor Stewart Patrick. Mr. Patrick said he could not understand if the tax was to be applied why spinsters were not included.

"They use the same facilities as the men. If single men who are not owners have to pay, the spinsters should too."

"There seems to be quite a bit of justice in that," said Mayor Ross Linton.

The clerk said there were only about 25 paying poll tax although around 60 were billed and it was a case of going after the offenders if the tax remained in effect.

General opinion of councillors was that this form of taxation was obsolete and should be abandoned.

A new adding machine and a new typewriter at a cost of $415.00 will be purchased by council for use jointly with the hydro commission. Purchase of a pump by street employees was recommended at a cost of $415.00. Good sales and Concessions was granted the arena booth concession at a price of $75 for the season. There were three applications filed with the committee.

PROTEST WIG-WAG COST

The Toronto and York Road Commission agree with Aurora councillors that the cost of maintaining the wig-wag on Wellington St. is 50 percent higher than originally estimated by the Canadian National Railways.

The T.Y.R., which pays 35 percent of the cost, are obligated for $153.04 while the town pays nearly double that figure. A protest will be forwarded to the board of railway commissioners.

SON BAPTIZED

Bruce Eric Starkey, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Starkey, was christened on Sunday at Trinity church, Aurora, by Rev. R. K. Perdue. God-parents were Mr. and Mrs. William Trent.

IS PROGRESSING

Mrs. Carlyle Peterson, who underwent an appendix operation last week at York County hospital, is progressing favorably.

TO ATTEND FAIR

Over 250 pupils of Aurora high school will attend the Royal Winter Fair tomorrow.

PARKING LAWS
TIGHTENED ON
YONGE ST. HERE

Parking on Yonge St. between Mosley and Wellington Sts. will in future be limited to one hour following an amendment to the parking by-law made by Aurora town council on Monday night.

From Monday to Friday, the area will only permit one-hour parking until 6 p.m. On Saturday, the limited parking period runs until 10 p.m. Aurora police will be issued instructions to see the by-law is strictly enforced and suitable signs will be erected.

Taxi licenses will be up for renewal on Dec. 31, and the town council has ruled following points must be strictly followed:

A license of $15 for the first cab, and $15 for each additional cab; drivers other than the owner must pay a $1 license fee; cabs must carry rate cards; no parking on Yonge St. between Church and Centre Sts. except
